

Accessible Customer Service for Emergency Responders An Emergency Management Ontario E-Learning Utility

Tips for Interacting with a Person who may have Psychosis

Communication

- Do not suggest to the person that he or she may have psychosis.
- During your interaction focus on how the delusions or hallucinations make the person feel. For example, "Hearing those voices must be frightening for you."